

Hey, we can buy a newspaper from anywhere in the world. Why do we have to be forced into regions by only being offered our local news, weather, and traffic affiliates. Information should not be censored to appease advertising markets. This is a free country